The Interior Design Society will be holding its 2012 Sonoma Designer Showcase event at Hotel Chauvet in Glen Ellen, Calif.

Glen Ellen, CA, November 27, 2012 - (PressReleasePoint) - The Interior Design Society will be holding its 2012 Sonoma Designer Showcase event at Hotel Chauvet in Glen Ellen, Calif.

The event will be held over the course of two consecutive weekends ? November 30th through December 2nd, and the following weekend, December 7-9th. Daily hours on these days are 10:30 a.m. through 4:30 p.m.

The Chauvet has also recently announced that it will be selling the six condominiums as 1/8 tenancy-in-common interests, which is approximately 6 weeks of use. Tenancy-in-common is designed for second or vacation home use.

Information on purchasing a tenancy-in-common interest in one of the stunning Hotel Chauvet Condominiums will be available at the showcase.

In addition to the actual showcase there are other evening events planned during the course of the two weekends.

There will be an opening night ?Mix and Mingle? event November 30th from 6-8 p.m. A Wine Cave Gala Dinner will be held the evening of December 1st. On Sunday, December 9th, attendees of the Designer Showcase will have an opportunity to purchase some of the items on display at the Designers Furnishings Sale from 10 a.m. ? 2 p.m.

?It is truly an honor for the IDS to have selected The Chauvet as the location of this year?s showcase,? said Chauvet owner Christine Hansson. ?We are very excited about being host to and a part of this prestigious event, as well as to introduce the public to the opportunity to own a piece of The Chauvet.?
