Palm Springs, CA, September 06, 2012 (PressReleasePoint) -- Camp Soaring Eagle has hired the Palm Springs based Joseph Allen Agencies to handle the publicity and marketing campaign for their 2012 Annual Affair Gala.

Camp Soaring Eagle is a non-profit organization that provides children with serious illnesses an opportunity to escape the reality of their sickness and experience a week of sheer joy in a camp setting.

This year's event theme is "CANDY LAND", and will feature décor, entertainment and cuisine inspired by the timeless children's board game.

Joseph Allen Agencies is offering its services pro-bono to the non-profit organization, and will coordinate all PR and marketing efforts for the event, focusing on public awareness and increasing sponsorship and attendance.

"This is such an important event for Camp Soaring Eagle and for the children needing their services that we have decided to work pro bono," said JAA CEO Tom Bauer. "I'm hoping it will help inspire others to sponsor and attend this wonderful event. We all need to do our part for these children."

Joseph Allen Agencies is a full service public relations and marketing firm that has proven itself able to truly understand the goals and direction of a company or organization after the initial meetings.

"We are so grateful to Joseph Allen Agencies for providing this service to us free of charge," said Camp Soaring Eagle Executive Director Jennifer Perry. "Sponsorships and donations of this kind are so crucial to the day-to-day operations of our organization, and we absolutely could not exist without them."
