Effective immediately, Riley Hotel Group (formerly Ascenture Hotel Group) will take over management of the luxury resort of Cadaqués Caribe Resort and Villas in the Dominican Republic.

Akron, OH, January 12, 2012 - (PressReleasePoint) - Effective immediately, Riley Hotel Group (formerly Ascenture Hotel Group) will take over management of the luxury resort of Cadaqués Caribe Resort and Villas in the Dominican Republic.

Cadaqués Caribe is a mixed use, 4-star resort located in the coastal town of Bayahibe, D.R. Comprised of whole- and fractional- ownership properties as well as a boutique hotel, it boasts a spectacular beachside locale complete with on-site water park, lagoon pools, a swimming pier, a spa, restaurants and bars.

"We are very excited about this recent partnership," said Joe Moffa, president of Riley Hotel Group. "Cadaqués Caribe is the first international property that we will be managing, and it will represent the new direction of Riley as the premier luxury property management organization internationally as well as here in the United States."

Since 2003, Riley Hotel Group has consistently provided superior levels of customer satisfaction and service and has been named in the top 100 Hotel Management companies for the past two years.

Riley Hotel Group currently manages 14 properties in the United States and the Dominican Republic that include brands such as Hilton Garden Inn, Holiday Inn Express, and Hampton Inn. There are currently two more projects in development in the US, and several international projects are in negotiations.
