Blame It On Midnight, a supper-club style restaurant located in Palm Springs, Calif. will soon be re-opening under new ownership and management

Palm Springs, CA, March 20, 2013 - (PressReleasePoint) - Blame It On Midnight, a supper-club style restaurant located in Palm Springs, Calif. will soon be re-opening under new ownership and management

The restaurant, located at 777 E. Tahquitz Canyon Way, Palm Springs, had been a successful and popular venue until it closed at the expiration of its lease. During its time in business, Blame It On Midnight developed a solid and consistent customer base.

The new owner, Mel Frank, owner of the Arenas Road neighborhood bar, Score, plans to keep a similar ambiance and menu-style, with a refinement of the food and beverage item offerings to keep up with the trends that are popular with the dynamic downtown Palm Springs crowds.

"I am very pleased to be a part of the re-opening of this off-strip gem," said Anthony I. Emma, General Manager of the new Blame It On Midnight. "We are aiming at making the second go-around of this eatery a truly successful one."

Blame It On Midnight will feature a daily happy hour, a variety of live entertainment, and an upscale casual dining environment. Grand Opening events are currently being planned to include food and drink specials and live entertainment.
