Palm Springs, CA, January 18, 2013 -(PressReleasePoint)- Guests of Random Haus Palm Springs, a new luxury LGBT property opening soon in Palm Springs, have the opportunity to have several spa treatments performed at the hotel during their stay.

Random Haus has agreements with several local massage therapists and an esthetician who are available to come to the property and offer various services on site.

"This is the most recent addition to the extensive list services provided by Random Haus Palm Springs and is very much in keeping with our goal to make the hotel the standard for LGBT luxury properties," said Random Haus Palm Springs general manager Paul Caudell.

Guests can book an appointment with either a male or female massage therapist, who can perform the massages either in the guests' room or poolside. Random Haus therapists are practiced in many massage styles, from deep tissue to relaxing Swedish and everything in between.

Facials, body treatments and waxing services are available through our contracted, licensed esthetician, Monica Mallory, owner of Pure Esthetics. Mallory has 15 years of experience in salon and spa services and can custom build a package to suit each individual guest in addition to several existing packages or a la carte services.

Guests of Random Haus Palm Springs will be able to arrange for their massage or esthetic services through the hotel concierge and services will be billed to the room for convenience.
