Palm Springs, CA, February 25, 2013 - (PressReleasePoint) - Random Haus Palm Springs, a new luxury LGBT property opening soon in Palm Springs, has partnered with locally-based Jensen's Finest Foods for the hotel's catering and guest grocery needs.

Jensen's has and will continue to provide all of the food, beverage and staffing needs for past and upcoming events designed to promote the highly anticipated opening of Random Haus Palm Springs.

Additionally, guests of the condo-hotel will have the ability to order food and beverage items that will be delivered directly to their room. Guests will also have the ability to have their kitchen pre-stocked with items of their choosing prior to their arrival.

"We are very excited to provide these services to what is sure to be an amazing property," said Mike Zack, Director of Buying at Jensen's Finest Foods. "Jensen's and Random Haus share a similar goal of providing excellent customer service and the highest standard of goods which, I think, makes this partnership a perfect match."

Jensen's will also be the provider of the free, individually selected breakfast that is provided daily to guests of Random Haus. Some examples of breakfast options that will be available are freshly baked croissants, bagels, muffins and danishes, and fresh fruit.
